~ Soldiers & NCO of the Year 2007 ~

By Felix P. Nater

The Greater New York Statue of Liberty Chapter of the Association of the United States Army honored Soldiers and NCOs from the New York area commands from the Active, Army Reserve and National Guard on Friday, April 20, 2007, as part of the Chapter's way of saying thank you for your accomplishments and service. This year we presented a One-year AUSA Membership to all Honorees an AUSA Plaque, AUSA Chapter Coin and local area Senators and Legislatures presented Certificates of Appreciation to the 27 Honorees. Our traditional Soldier and NCO of the Year Recognition and Awards Dinner are always hosted by the Fort Hamilton Community Club, Brooklyn, New York to give the setting that relevant and significant military ambiance.

Missing from this year's program were Soldiers from the 77th Regional Readiness Command who were engaged in a Soldier and NCO Competition at Fort Dix. "Hooah!"

Our guest speaker for the program was Command Sergeant Major Robert Van Pelt, Command Sergeant Major of the Army National Guard. Col Dominic Morelli presented CSM Van Pelt a Chapter Plaque as a token of appreciation. CSM Van Pelt is on the Board of Advisor and a true representative of Soldiers.
